

Apprentice of the Year Award 2023

Applications close February 28, 2023

The SHRFA wishes to promote excellence in the engineering tradition of Sir Henry Royce by recognizing and annually awarding a current apprentice who demonstrates an outstanding skill-set and attitude and who is currently employed in Australia in the servicing of Rolls-Royce and Bentley products including diesel, aero or commercial engines as well as coachbuilding.

The winner will be announced at the annual Rolls- Royce Owners' Club, Australia in South Australia in March 2023. The award is $1000 plus name added to the perpetual trophy.

Eligibility Criteria

Nominees must:

- Be employed in Australia in the servicing or restoration of Rolls-Royce or Bentley products. This employment could be in mechanical, electrical, body repairs, maintenance and associated areas.
- Be recognized by the employer as an apprentice with dedication, talent and enthusiasm for the tasks undertaken.
- Demonstrate an ongoing commitment to excellence in the chosen area of automotive or aero servicing or restoration.
- Be supported by references from the employer or TAFE or other relevant training results. This may include a reference from a Recognized Training Authority.
- Provide most recent and highest education results.
- The APPLICANT to provide a 400-word outline of her/his current training with particular reference to his/her experience of and interest in Rolls-Royce or Bentley products.
- The EMPLOYER to complete an outline of the nominee apprentice addressing the following:
 - i. Name, age, place of employment, email
 - ii. Description of work duties
 - iii. Length of time working in current position
 - iv. Previous employment history of the applicant
 - v. The particular skills, attributes and attitudes which support the application.

Forms can be downloaded from <https://www.henryroycefoundation.com/awards>

The completed application form, employer's references, education results and 400-word outline should be sent to chair@henryroycefoundation.com

The Trustees will evaluate each application and the winner will be announced at the RROCA Federal Rally and also be written up onto the SHRFA website and Facebook page with photographs.